PULASKI, TENN.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 22, 1866.

Examination and Public Dinner.

We are requested to announce that there will be an examination of the pupils of Col. A. H. Abernathy's School, 34 miles south-east of Pulaski, on Friday next, 19th inst., on which occasion there will be speaking and a public dinner. The Colonel's friends are all invited to be present.

HORSE STEALING.—Felix G. Worsham was arrested on Wednesday last by Deputy Sheriff Benton Ezell, upon an indictment for horse stealing. He was trying to give bail yesterday, but had not succeeded when we went to press. Felix will be remembered as the second son of Henry (Turk) Worsham, an old citizen of Pulaski.

A Big Fish.—Little Pink Ezell, aged about six years, caught a fish last Tuesday without any assistance whatever, which weighed four pounds. When he came to tell us about, we asked him what kind of a fish it was, and he replied that he believed it was a whale, but if there was any fish larger than a whale it was that.

Lieutenant Buford.
We had the pleasure yesterday of meeting the world-renowned heroine and Confederate officer, Lieut. Buford, whose exploits during the war are familiar to our readers. She entered the army in disguise, was at the first battle of Manassas, was twice wounded at the battle of Shiloh, promoted to a Lieutenant for gallantry on the field, and served gallantly in that position throughout the war. She is now the widow of Maj. De Caule, of an Arkansas regiment, and is soliciting subscribers to a volume of poetry and a historical work which she has just completed. She is stopping at the Tennessee House.

The Biggest and The Best.

One of our street loungers stepped into this office the other day, and seeing upon our table some of the largest beets and potatoes ever seen at this season of the year, went off in the following strain:

I wish I was an editor,
I really do indeed,
It seems to me that editors
Get everything they need—
They get the biggest and the best
Of everything that grows,
And get in free to circuses
And other kind of shows.

The truth is just simply this: Editors appreciate small favors better than anybody else, and friends, knowing how needy and thankful they are, generally send them specimens of the biggest and best of everything they raise. We are just now under special obligation to our friend Jas. F. Fogg, Esq'r., for the largest beets of the season, and to Dave Cox for several measures of the biggest and the best potatoes it has ever been our pleasure to eat at this season of the year. The beets weighed over a pound apiece, and one potato was enough for any man to eat at one meal. We will wager a treat that nobody can beat them.

Col. King. who commanded an Ohio regiment during the war, is stopping at the Stacy House. He is cultivating a plantation in Giles county, in partnership with John C. Brown, late of the Confederate army. Here's reconstruction for you.

The above paragraph is from the Banner of Wednesday, and reads well in print; but our cotemporary has been deceived. Gen. Brown is not cultivating a farm in this or any other county. One of Gen. Thos. J. Brown's places is being cultivated by Capt. King. Perhaps this explains the mistake.

To the Colored People of Giles.

A meeting of the Colored people will take place at Pulaski, on Monday, 25th inst., when questions of vast importance will be discussed for the benefit of the community at large, but especially is it to the interest of the colored man to come and find out who are his friends. In our present feeble condition we must know who we are to look to for support. Come on, come all. Employers of colored people will please use their influence to secure a large attendance. The white people also are respectfully invited to attend. L. J. JOHNSON, President.

The South Nashville street cars conveyed forty-two thousand and odd passengers during last month.

The Wheat Crop.

We have cheering news with regard to the wheat crop throughout the South. We believe the yield in this county will be poorer than in any other section. The crop is good, but there is too little of it. In Georgia the crop is being harvested, and the local papers report it as turning out much better than was expected. The Rome Courier of the 14th inst. says the market at that place will open this season at two dollars per bushel, and adds: "It will not likely go above that price, and may go below." The Chattanooga Union of the 19th inst. says the crop of that section will be nearly as large again as was anticipated four weeks ago. Mississippi exchanges report the prospect good for an average crop.

Gen. GEORGE MANEY, of Nashville, late of the C. S. A., was pardoned by the President on last Friday.

They had a baby convention in Muscatine, Iowa, the other day. Fifteen mothers with their little ones were present, and voted on the question of the prettiest. Each baby got one vote and no more.

SWENNEY says Stephens is an English spy; Romero calls Santa Anna a French spy; and Santa Anna denounces Romero as an Austrian spy—all of which is slightly personal.

A traveller announces as a fact that he once in his life saw people "minding their own business." This remarkable occurrence happened at sea—the passengers being too sick to attend to each other's concerns.

Storms of violent wind and rain have this season been of very frequent occurrence over nearly the whole Southern country. Our exchanges are full of accounts of the damages to the crops, fences, buildings, &c., sustained from them.

NEW POSTAL LAW.—Under the new postal law, just approved by the President, dead letters are to be restored to the writers free of postage, and prepaid letters may be forwarded, at the request of the parties to whom addressed, from one office to another without additional charges.

"THE LADIES' HOME" is the title of a new weekly literary paper published at Atlanta, Georgia, and of which Dr. Thomas S. Powell is proprietor, and Mrs. L. Virginia French, editress. It is in quarto form and executed in the neatest and most tasteful style. From the first number, we learn that it is already established upon a paying basis, and as its object is to aid in building a "Home for Southern invalid ladies," as well as to aid in building up a Southern literature, it presents a two-fold claim to Southern patronage.

The trial of Major Dick McCann, is in progress at Knoxville.

JUDGE BALLARD, of the United States Court for the District of Kentucky, has ordered the release of Isham Henderson, on a writ of habeas corpus.
